Note: Where Quebec law applies and you have designated your married spouse or civil union spouse as beneficiary, the designation will be irrevocable unless you check the box marked "Revocable", below.

I hereby make the above beneficiary designation:

☐ Revocable, I may change this beneficiary designation at any time

For Quebec Applicants Only - Benefits payable under this plan to a beneficiary who, at the time payment is to be made, is a minor or lacks legal capacity, will be paid to their tutor(s) or curator(s), unless a valid trust has been established for the benefit of the beneficiary, by Will or by separate contract, to receive any such payment and Canada Life has been provided notice of the trust. If a valid trust has already been established, designate the trust as the beneficiary in this section. Before designating a trust, you should seek legal advice.

For All Other Applicants - If designating a beneficiary who is a minor or who lacks legal capacity you may wish to appoint a trustee/administrator by completing form #M6242 BIL. This appointment may not be suitable for all purposes. Before designating a trustee, you should seek legal advice.

6. Trustee appointment

You may wish to appoint a trustee/administrator by completing this section

An original or copy of this form will be required for a life claim.

Please print clearly, in INK.

DO NOT COMPLETE THIS SECTION IF YOU ARE A QUEBEC RESIDENT

If designating a beneficiary who is a minor or who lacks legal capacity you may wish to appoint a trustee/administrator by completing this form. This appointment may not be suitable for all purposes.

If you are designating a trustee/administrator, we recommend you consult with a legal advisor, and with any proposed trustee/administrator.

Do not complete this section if you have made another trustee/administrator appointment.

I hereby appoint the following trustee to receive and to hold in trust, on behalf of any beneficiary, money payable to the beneficiary under this group benefits plan where, at the time payment is to be made, the beneficiary is a minor or otherwise lacks legal capacity. Any such payment, to its extent, will release The Canada Life Assurance Company from further liability. The trustee shall act prudently and may use the money, including any returns on it or investments made, for the education and/or maintenance of the beneficiary. The trust will terminate once the beneficiary is of the age of majority and has legal capacity. At that time, the trustee shall deliver to the beneficiary all assets held in trust.

8. Privacy

This section explains Canada Life's commitment to privacy.

Protecting your personal information. At Canada Life, we're committed to protecting personal information and respecting your privacy. Personal information is information that either on its own or combined with other information allows an individual to be identified. This includes your name and address, as well as more sensitive information such as your health and financial records. When applicable, this includes information about other people such as your spouse, common-law partner, and children.

How we use your personal information. Your personal information is used to provide you with products and services and to improve our business operations. This includes verifying your identity, maintaining your profile, and informing you about features of the products you already have with us. It's also used to provide you with advice, evaluate your eligibility for products, price our products, collect feedback on our customer service, process claims and other financial transactions, protect you and us from risks such as cyber threats and fraud, and comply with legal obligations. If you provided your social insurance number (SIN), we'll use it for tax reporting. Your SIN is also used to link your products together and to keep your information separate from other customers with similar names.

Who we share personal information with. We share your personal information with other people and organizations who help us administer your products and provide you with services. This may include your advisor or people who work with your advisor, our Canadian subsidiaries, and other organizations that provide us services such as paramedical examiners, medical laboratories, MIB, LLC., specialty coverage providers, independent medical examiners, and pharmacy benefits managers. As well, we may share your information with claims assessors, travel assistance providers, technology suppliers, other insurance or reinsurance companies, other financial institutions, and credit reporting agencies. As part of our day-to-day business, your personal information may be communicated to government departments and agencies, and may be communicated outside your province of residence or outside Canada. We take protecting your personal information seriously and we'll never sell your personal information to anyone.

You're in control of your personal information. We respect your privacy preferences and follow them when using your personal information. At any point in your relationship with us, you can choose how your personal information is used by updating your privacy preferences through your online account or by submitting a request through our privacy centre at canadalife.com/privacy. This includes choosing whether you receive customer experience surveys, the use of your SIN for non-tax reporting purposes, and whether and how you want to receive information and offers from Canada Life using the personal information we collect from you throughout your relationship with us. You can also exercise other privacy rights through our privacy centre such as access to or correction of your personal information.

If you choose to remove your consent to the collection, use and disclosure of the personal information required to serve you and meet our legal obligations, we may not be able to continue to provide you with products and services.

9. Authorizations and declarations

This section must be signed and dated in INK by the plan member.

I hereby apply for coverage under the group benefits plan issued by Canada Life.

I have read and understand and agree with the contents of the section on this form entitled "Privacy".

I authorize:

- my plan sponsor to deduct from my pay and remit to Canada Life the plan member contributions required under the plan, if applicable;
- Canada Life to use my social insurance number for tax reporting purposes and as an identification number where it is required in the administration of the plan;
- Canada Life, any healthcare provider, my plan administrator, other insurance or reinsurance companies, administrators of government benefits or other benefits programs, other organizations, or service providers working with Canada Life or the above to exchange personal information, when relevant and necessary to determine my eligibility for coverage and to administer the plan.

If applying for coverage for my spouse and/or dependants, I confirm that I am authorized to act on their behalf.

I agree that a photocopy or electronic copy of the Authorizations and Declarations section is as valid as the original.

I certify that the information given is true, correct and complete to the best of my knowledge.

For Quebec applicants: I request that this form be in English.
Je demande que ce formulaire me soit remis en anglais.
