Optional life beneficiary designation

This section must be completed to designate a beneficiary for your optional life benefits, if applicable. An original or copy this form will be required for a life claim. Crossed out beneficiary designations must be initialed. Please print clearly, in INK.

I hereby revoke all previous beneficiary designations for this optional life benefit and designate the following as beneficiary(ies).

First name	Last name	Date of birth	Percent allocated	Relationship to employee

Spousal or child coverage terminates when the employee is no longer covered under the group benefits plan. The beneficiary for the spousal or child coverage shall be the employee if living, otherwise the employee's estate in the event of simultaneous death.

You may change this beneficiary designation at any time upon notice to Canada Life. If you wish to make the beneficiary designation irrevocable (meaning you may not change the designation or make certain changes to your coverage under the plan without the written consent of the beneficiary) please complete form M6348.

Note: Where Quebec law applies and you have designated your married spouse or civil union spouse as beneficiary, the designation will be irrevocable unless you check the box marked "Revocable", below.

I hereby make the above beneficiary designation: ☐ Revocable, I may change this beneficiary designation at any time

Personal medical history and lifestyle information

Genetic Non-Discrimination Act

You should not tell us about any genetic test (that is, any analysis of DNA or RNA chromosomes) which you may have had done. However, you must tell us if you're having treatment for, or experiencing symptoms of a genetic condition. You will be asked to provide us full information about your family history, including all genetic conditions.

If you answer 'yes' to any of the health questions, Canada Life will require more information to assess your application. In this case, a representative of Canada Life will contact you to complete a health assessment.
