Share the right information

If you fail to disclose information or give incorrect information related to your application for insurance, your coverage may be cancelled if it has been in effect for less than 2 years.

When your coverage begins

- Credit Limit of $150,000 or less: If your credit limit is $150,000 or less, your coverage will begin on the later of:
 - The day your PLC is approved by CIBC; or
 - The day CIBC receives your signed and completed application

If your credit limit is $150,000 or less, you won't need to answer the health questions. If your credit limit is increased and is still below $150,000, your Insurance coverage will be automatically increased up to the new credit limit. If your credit limit is ever increased above $150,000, you will need to complete a new application and answer the health questions, and coverage will begin on the day Canada Life approves your application. If your application is declined, your existing coverage for the PLC balance of $150,000 or less will remain in force.

- Credit Limit of more than $150,000: If your credit limit is greater than $150,000, your coverage on the balance up to $150,000 will begin on the later of:
 - The day your PLC is approved by CIBC; or
 - The day CIBC receives your signed and completed application

Coverage for balances greater than $150,000 begins on the day Canada Life sends you a written approval. You must answer the health questions on the application. If Canada Life declines your application, your insurance coverage for the PLC balance of $150,000 or less will remain in force.

When your coverage ends

Your insurance coverage ends automatically on the earliest of the following dates:

- The date you turn 70 years old
- The date CIBC receives your request to cancel the insurance
- The date your PLC is closed
- The date you are no longer a borrower, co-borrower or guarantor of the PLC
- The date you die
- The date your insurance premiums are 90 days overdue
 - For Disability Insurance, you will be given a written notice at least 15 days before your insurance is cancelled for non-payment of premiums
- The date the group policy terminates

For further details, please refer to the sample Certificate of Insurance.

Cancelling your insurance

If you change your mind about the coverage within 30 days from the date you receive your Certificate of Insurance, you will receive a full refund of any premium paid. It's like the coverage never started.

You can cancel your insurance coverage at any time by:

- Calling CIBC at 1 800 465-6020
- Completing a cancellation form at any CIBC banking centre
- Writing to your CIBC banking centre requesting cancellation. Your request must specify the PLC information, names of insured persons and the insurance coverage you want to cancel.

Making and appealing a claim

To make a claim: Contact your CIBC banking centre or contact CIBC by calling toll-free: 1 800 465-6020 or visiting cibc.com.

Procedure and time limits: You must notify and provide Canada Life with completed claim forms and any supporting documentation as follows:

- For life claims: No later than 3 years from the date of death
- For disability claims: Within 120 days from the date of disability

Canada Life will let you know about their decision within 30 days after receiving all the necessary documents to process your claim. If you don't agree with a decision about your claim, you can appeal it at any time in writing and include the reasons for appealing. The costs for any medical evidence needed to support your claim's review will need to be paid by you.
