

Creditor Insurance for CIBC Personal Loans — Product summary

Help pay off or reduce outstanding debt should the unexpected occur

Welcome!

What you need to know about this insurance coverage

Creditor Insurance for CIBC Personal Loans is optional and offers you coverage for:

- Life Insurance; and/or
- One of the following:
 - Disability Insurance; or
 - Payment Protector Insurance (Disability and Job Loss)

Note: Payment Protector Insurance provides Disability Insurance and Job Loss Insurance into one insurance package.

The various coverages are all subject to the terms and conditions of the group master policy entered into between CIBC and the insurer, The Canada Life Assurance Company (Canada Life). You can request a copy of the master policy by contacting Canada Life.

Who can apply

You're eligible for this insurance if on the date CIBC receives your application, you're a Canadian resident (living in Canada for at least 6 months out of the year or a member of the Canadian Armed Forces), have been approved for a CIBC personal loan, and the total outstanding balance of all your insured CIBC personal loans (including the loan you're applying for) is less than $200,000. Please see the sections titled 'Who can apply' below for additional coverage-specific eligibility criteria.

A maximum of two people per personal loan can be insured for Life Insurance. Only one person can be insured for either Disability Insurance or Payment Protector Insurance on the personal loan. For more information, please refer to the sample Certificate of Insurance.

Share the right information

If you fail to disclose information or give incorrect information related to your application for insurance, your coverage may be cancelled if it has been in effect for less than 2 years.

Special provision for replacement loans and life coverage

If you used proceeds of the personal loan to pay an insured CIBC Personal Loan ('previous loan') within 5 days of the funds being advanced, you may still receive a benefit when your life insurance claim is denied due to pre-existing condition or suicide exclusion. For information on how the benefit amount is calculated, please refer to the sample Certificate of Insurance.

When your coverage begins

Insurance coverage starts on the day the personal loan funds are advanced to you, if CIBC has received your signed and completed insurance application.

When your coverage ends

Your insurance coverage ends automatically on the earliest of the following dates:

- The date you turn 70 years old
- The date CIBC receives your request to cancel the insurance
- The date your loan is paid in full
- The date you die
- The date your insurance premiums are 90 days overdue, unless you are receiving Payment Protector Insurance benefits under the policy
 - For Disability and Job Loss Insurance, you will be given a written notice at least 15 days before your insurance is cancelled for non-payment of premiums
- The date the group policy terminates

For further details, please refer to the sample Certificate of Insurance.

Cancelling your insurance

If you change your mind about the coverage within 30 days from the date you receive your Certificate of Insurance, we'll issue a full refund of any premium paid. It's like the coverage never started.

You can cancel your insurance coverage at any time by:

- Calling CIBC at 1 800 465-6020
- Completing a cancellation form at any CIBC banking centre
- Writing to your CIBC banking centre requesting cancellation. Your request must specify the personal loan information, names of insured persons and the insurance coverage you want to cancel.

Making and appealing a claim

To make a claim: Contact your CIBC banking centre or contact CIBC by calling toll-free: 1 800 465-6020 or visiting cibc.com.

Procedure and time limits: You must notify and provide Canada Life with completed claim forms and any supporting documentation as follows:

- For life claims: No later than 3 years from the date of death
- For disability or job loss claims: Within 120 days from the date of disability or date of job loss

Canada Life will let you know about their decision within 30 days after receiving all the necessary documents to process your claim. If you don't agree with a decision about your claim, you can appeal it at any time in writing and include the reasons for appealing. The costs for any medical evidence needed to support your claim's review will need to be paid by you.
