Investment segmentation

Are there any guarantees?

How has the fund performed?

This section tells you how the fund has performed over the past 10 years, prior to the deduction of fees for a policyowner who chose the 75/75 guarantee policy. This option does not deduct a MER but you pay fees that you agree to in your fee agreement directly. These fees reduce returns. See the Ongoing expenses section below for details.

It's important to note that this doesn't tell you how the fund will perform in the future. Also, your actual return will depend on the guarantee policy you choose and your personal tax situation.

Global Infrastructure

How much does it cost?

The following table shows the fees and expenses you could pay to invest in or redeem units of the fund.

1. Sales charges

| Sales charge option           | What you pay                       | How it works   |
|-------------------------------|------------------------------------|--|
| Preferred series 2 FEL option | Up to 2% of the amount you invest. | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>You and your financial security advisor determine the rate.</li> <li>The fee is deducted from the amount you invest. It is paid as a commission.</li> </ul> |

2. Ongoing expenses

Normally the MER includes the investment management fee, operating expenses and the cost for the guarantee. These fees are normally deducted from the fund. The preferred series 2 FEL option is only available if you pay fees by redeeming units from your policy. The preferred series 2 fee agreement shows the fees you pay. These fees reduce the return you get on your investment. The advisory and management service fee is negotiable and the fee ranges between 0.50% and 1.25%.

Available additional guarantee options are subject to the following fees. You have to pay for these as set out below. For details about how the guarantees work, please see the applicable section of your information folder and contract.

| Guarantee policy                    | Death benefit guarantee reset option (%) | Maturity guarantee reset option (%) |

What if I change my mind?

You can change your mind and cancel the segregated fund policy, the initial pre-authorized chequing premium or any lump-sum premium you apply to the policy by telling us in writing within two business days of the earlier of the date you received confirmation of the transaction or five business days after it is mailed to you.

Your cancellation request has to be in writing, which can include email or letter. The amount returned will be the lesser of the amount of the premium being cancelled or the value of the applicable units acquired on the day we process your request. The amount returned only applies to the specific transaction and will include a refund of any sales charges or other fees you paid.
