Are there any guarantees?

This fund is being offered under an insurance contract. It comes with guarantees that may protect your investment if the markets go down. The MER includes the insurance cost for the guarantee. For details, please refer to the information folder and contract.

Who is this fund for?

A person who is investing for the medium to longer term with a target of no more than 30 to 50 per cent invested in equities and is comfortable with low risk.

Notes

Prior to May 16, 2025, this fund was named Moderate Income Portfolio. Effective May 16, 2025, this fund will aim to invest in a single underlying fund instead of several underlying funds and the risk rating was changed from "Low to moderate" to "Low". The performance prior to the above dates were achieved under previous investment strategy. The Top 10 investments represent the holdings as of December 31, 2024. No other changes were made to the segregated fund.

How has the fund performed?

This section tells you how the fund has performed over the past 10 years for a policyowner who chose the 75/75 guarantee policy and Standard series' option. Returns are after the MER has been deducted.

It's important to note that this doesn't tell you how a Standard series option will perform in the future. Also, your actual return will depend on the guarantee policy and sales charge option you choose and your personal tax situation.

Average return

A person who invested $1,000 in a Standard series option on December 31, 2014 would have $1,217.62 on December 31, 2024. This works out to an average of 1.99% a year.

Year-by-year returns (%)

This chart shows how a Standard series option has performed in each of the past 10 years. In the past 10 years, the fund was up in value 8 years and down in value 2 years.

How risky is it?

The risk rating for this fund is Low.

The value of your investments can go down. Please see the Fund risks section of the information folder for further details.

2. Ongoing expenses

The MER includes the management fee and operating expenses of the fund as well as the insurance cost for the guarantee. For Standard series and Preferred series 1, the MER also includes a fee that is paid to your financial security advisor for the services and advice provided to you. You don't pay the MER directly but it will reduce the return on your investment. For Partner series and Preferred partner series, you will pay for the financial security advisor's services through the redemption of units from your policy, known as an AMS fee. This fee is negotiable and ranges from 0.50-1.25%.

Available additional guarantee options are subject to the following fees. You have to pay for these as set out below and this cost isn't included in the MER. For details about how the guarantees work, please see the applicable section of your information folder and contract.

Effective November 4th, 2020 the lifetime income benefit (LIB) option is no longer allowed to be added to new or existing segregated fund policies, and no subsequent contributions can be made to policies with the LIB option as of this date.
