A NOTE ON FORWARD-LOOKING STATEMENTS

This report may contain forward-looking statements that reflect our current expectations or forecasts of future events. Forward-looking statements include statements that are predictive in nature, depend upon or refer to future events or conditions, or include words such as "expects", "anticipates", "intends", "plans", "believes", "estimates", "preliminary", "typical" and other similar expressions. In addition, these statements may relate to future corporate actions, future financial performance of a fund or a security and their future investment strategies and prospects. Forward-looking statements are inherently subject to, among other things, risks, uncertainties and assumptions that could cause actual events, results, performance or prospects to differ materially from those expressed in, or implied by, these forward-looking statements. These risks, uncertainties and assumptions include, without limitation, general economic, political and market factors in North America and internationally, interest and foreign exchange rates, the volatility of global equity and capital markets, business competition, technological change, changes in government regulations, changes in securities laws and regulations, changes in tax laws, unexpected judicial or regulatory proceedings, catastrophic events and the ability of Mackenzie to attract or retain key employees. The foregoing list of important risks, uncertainties and assumptions is not exhaustive. Please consider these and other factors carefully and do not place undue reliance on forward-looking statements.

The forward-looking information contained in this report is current only as of the date of this report. There should not be an expectation that such information will in all circumstances be updated, supplemented or revised whether as a result of new information, changing circumstances, future events or otherwise.

Management Discussion of Fund Performance

July 13, 2020

This Management Discussion of Fund Performance presents the portfolio management team's view on the significant factors and developments during the year ended March 31, 2020 (the "period"), that have affected the Fund's performance and outlook. If the Fund was established during the period, "period" represents the period from inception to the end of the fiscal period. For information on the Fund's longer-term performance, as applicable, please refer to the Past Performance section of the report. In this report, "Mackenzie" refers to Mackenzie Financial Corporation, the manager of the Fund. In addition, net asset value ("NAV") refers to the value of the Fund as calculated for transaction purposes, on which the discussion of Fund performance is based.

Investment Objective and Strategies

The Fund seeks above-average long-term capital growth by investing primarily in equities of small- and mid-capitalization Canadian companies. It may hold up to 30% of its assets in foreign investments.

Risk

The risks of the Fund remain as discussed in the Fund's Simplified Prospectus.

The Fund is suitable for medium- to long-term investors looking for a Canadian equity fund to hold as part of their portfolio, who can handle the volatility of stock markets and who have a medium tolerance for risk.

Results of Operations

Investment Performance

The performance of the Fund's Quadrus Series securities is discussed below. The performance of all series is shown in the Past Performance section of the report. Where series returns differ, it is primarily because different levels of fees and expenses were charged to each series, or because securities of a series were not issued and outstanding for the entire reporting period. Please refer to the Fund Formation and Series Information section of this report for the varying management and administration fees payable by each series.

During the period, the Fund's Quadrus Series securities returned -8.8% (after deducting fees and expenses paid by the series). This compares with a return of -14.2% for the Fund's broad-based index, the S&P/TSX Composite Index, and a return of -23.4% for the Fund's narrow index, the S&P/TSX Completion Index. All index and series returns are calculated on a total return basis in Canadian dollar terms. Investors cannot invest in an index without incurring fees, expenses and commissions, which are not reflected in the index returns.

After reaching multi-year highs in February, Canadian equities fell sharply and ended the period significantly lower due to concerns about the impact of the COVID-19 pandemic on global economic activity. Energy stocks were especially weak as crude oil prices declined markedly in response to global production increases and lower demand due to the pandemic. The utilities sector, which is sensitive to interest rates, outperformed as a result of declining bond yields.

Canadian mid-capitalization stocks significantly underperformed large-capitalization stocks. Within the S&P/TSX Completion Index, utilities, information technology and communication services were the strongest sectors, while health care, energy and consumer discretionary were the weakest.

The Fund outperformed both the broad-based index and the narrow index, with overweight exposure to the information technology sector, as well as an overweight position and stock selection in the industrials sector, contributing to performance. On a country level, holdings in the United States and the Netherlands contributed to performance. Given the Fund's mandate, the return of the narrow index is a more meaningful comparison.

Relative to the narrow index, an underweight position and stock selection in the health care sector also contributed to performance. Detractors from performance included an underweight position and stock selection in the materials sector, as well as underweight exposure to financials.

Over the period, the Fund's exposures changed primarily to position the portfolio more defensively. On a sector level, this activity resulted in increased exposure to real estate and decreased exposure to consumer discretionary and energy. Changes to the portfolio included the elimination of the positions in Enerflex Ltd. and Zayo Group Holdings Inc.

Net Assets

The Fund's NAV declined by 11.4% to $48.0 million at March 31, 2020, from $54.2 million at March 31, 2019. This change was composed primarily of $3.8 million in net losses (after including dividend and interest income) from investment performance, after deducting fees and expenses, and $2.4 million in net redemptions.

See Other Related Party Transactions for the percentage of the Fund's NAV owned by related parties. As a result of these investments, the Fund is subject to large transaction risk as discussed in the Prospectus. Mackenzie manages this risk to reduce the possibility of any adverse effect on the Fund or on its investors.

Fees and Expenses

The management expense ratio ("MER") for Quadrus Series of 2.62% during the year ended March 31, 2020, was lower than the MER of 2.84% for the year ended March 31, 2019. The MERs (before and after waivers or absorptions, if any) for all series are presented in the Financial Highlights section of this report. The MERs for Quadrus Series, H Series, HW Series, L Series, QF Series and QFW Series decreased due to decreases in the management and/or administration fee rates effective June 28, 2018, and/or June 28, 2019, as noted in the Fund Formation and Series Information section of the report. The MERs for Quadrus Series, H Series, HW Series L Series, and QF Series also decreased due to a decrease in fund costs.

Recent Developments

Governments worldwide have enacted emergency measures to combat the spread of the COVID-19 virus in the last several months. These measures have caused significant volatility and weakness in global equity markets and material disruption to businesses globally, resulting in an economic slowdown. Governments and central banks have reacted with significant monetary and fiscal interventions designed to stabilize economic conditions.

The duration and impact of the COVID-19 pandemic on businesses and markets, and the extent of economic relief measures provided by governments and central banks, are unknown at the reporting date and it is therefore not possible to reliably estimate the impact on the financial results and position of the Fund in future periods.

In light of the measures taken to mitigate the effects of COVID-19, the portfolio management team's outlook is contingent upon the duration and future success of social distancing and shelter-at-home measures. The team believes that the market has already discounted the anticipated near-term earnings reductions, with the expectation of significantly improving earnings in the latter part of calendar 2020 and into 2021. In the team's view, these expectations are optimistic given the damage being inflicted on every part of the economy in response to the pandemic.

Consequently, the team has positioned the portfolio defensively with higher cash levels, reduced exposure to cyclical sectors, particularly energy and materials, and overweight exposure to renewable energy. A change in the Fund's defensive position will depend on greater clarity on the sustainability of any economic recovery.

On August 17, 2020, the Fund will be renamed Canada Life Mid Cap Canada Fund (GWLIM).

Related Party Transactions

The following arrangements result in fees paid by the Fund to Mackenzie or to companies affiliated with the Fund.

Management and Administration Services

For each applicable series, the Fund paid management fees and administration fees to Mackenzie at the annual rates specified under Fund Formation and Series Information in this report and as more fully described in the Prospectus. In return for the administration fees, Mackenzie pays all costs and expenses (other than certain specified fund costs) required to operate the Fund that are not included in management fees. See also Management Fees.

Other Related Party Transactions

Investment funds managed by Mackenzie invest in Series R securities of the Fund on a prospectus-exempt basis in accordance with the investment objectives of those funds. Series S securities are also offered on a prospectus-exempt basis to London Life Insurance Company, The Great-West Life Assurance Company and The Canada Life Assurance Company (collectively, the "Related Insurance Companies"), all of which are companies affiliated with Mackenzie. The Related Insurance Companies were amalgamated into one company, The Canada Life Assurance Company, effective January 1, 2020. At March 31, 2020, funds managed by Mackenzie owned 27.6% of the Fund's NAV, and The Canada Life Assurance Company owned 0.8% of the Fund's NAV. All related party transactions are based on the NAV per security on each transaction day.

The Fund did not rely on an approval, positive recommendation or standing instruction from the Mackenzie Funds' Independent Review Committee with respect to any related party transactions.

CANADIAN EQUITY FUND

Past Performance

The Fund's past performance information is presented in the following charts and table. It assumes all distributions made by the Fund in the periods presented are reinvested in additional securities of the relevant series of the Fund. The charts and table do not take into account sales, redemption, distribution or optional charges, or income taxes payable by any investor that would have reduced returns. The past performance of the Fund is not necessarily an indication of how it will perform in the future.

If you hold this Fund outside of a registered plan, income and capital gains distributions paid to you increase your income for tax purposes whether paid to you in cash or reinvested in additional securities of the Fund. The amount of reinvested taxable distributions is added to the adjusted cost base of the securities that you own. This would decrease your capital gain or increase your capital loss when you later redeem from the Fund, thereby ensuring that you are not taxed on this amount again. Please consult your tax advisor regarding your personal tax situation.

On June 26, 2015, the Fund changed its mandate from investing primarily in small-cap to mid-cap North American equity securities to investing primarily in small-cap to mid-cap Canadian equity securities. The past performance before this date was achieved under the previous objectives.

Year-by-Year Returns

The following bar charts present the performance of each series of the Fund for each of the fiscal periods shown. The charts show, in percentage terms, how much an investment made on the first day of each fiscal period, or on the series inception or reinstatement date, as applicable, would have increased or decreased by the last day of the fiscal period presented. Series inception or reinstatement dates can be found under Fund Formation and Series Information.

Annual Compound Returns

The following table compares the historical annual compound total returns for each series of the Fund with the relevant index or indices shown below for each of the periods ended March 31, 2020. Investors cannot invest in an index without incurring fees, expenses and commissions, which are not reflected in these performance figures.

All index returns are calculated in Canadian dollars on a total return basis, meaning that all dividend payments, interest income accruals and interest payments are reinvested.

(1) These calculations are prescribed by securities regulations and are not intended to be a reconciliation between opening and closing net assets per security. This information is derived from the Fund's audited annual financial statements. The net assets per security presented in the financial statements may differ from the net asset value per security calculated for fund pricing purposes. An explanation of these differences can be found in the Notes to Financial Statements.

(2) Net assets and distributions are based on the actual number of securities outstanding at the relevant time. The increase/decrease from operations is based on the weighted average number of securities outstanding over the fiscal period.

(3) Distributions were paid in cash/reinvested in additional securities of the Fund, or both.

(1) This information is provided as at the end of the fiscal period shown.

(2) Management expense ratio is based on total expenses (excluding commissions and other portfolio transaction costs) for the stated period and is expressed as an annualized percentage of daily average net asset value during the period. If in the period a series was established or reinstated, the management expense ratio is annualized from the date of inception or reinstatement. Mackenzie may waive or absorb operating expenses at its discretion and stop waiving or absorbing such expenses at any time without notice.

(3) The trading expense ratio represents total commissions and other portfolio transaction costs expressed as an annualized percentage of daily average net asset value during the period.

(4) The Fund's portfolio turnover rate indicates how actively the Fund's portfolio advisor manages its portfolio investments. A portfolio turnover rate of 100% is equivalent to the Fund buying and selling all of the securities in its portfolio once in the course of the period. The higher a fund's portfolio turnover rate in a period, the greater the trading costs payable by the fund in the period, and the greater the chance of an investor receiving taxable capital gains in the year. There is not necessarily a relationship between a high turnover rate and the performance of a fund. The portfolio turnover rate is not provided when the Fund is less than one year old. The value of any trades to realign the Fund's portfolio after a fund merger, if any, is excluded from the portfolio turnover rate.

Management Fees

The management fee for each applicable series is calculated and accrued daily as a percentage of its NAV. The Fund's management fees were used by Mackenzie in part to pay GLC Asset Management Group Ltd., an affiliate of Mackenzie, for investment advisory services, including managing the investment portfolio of the Fund and/or the underlying fund(s), as applicable, including providing investment analysis and recommendations, making investment decisions and making brokerage arrangements for the purchase and sale of the investment portfolio.

Quadrus Investment Services Ltd. ("Quadrus"), an affiliate of Mackenzie, is the principal distributor for the Fund and is paid trailing commissions out of the management fees. The Canada Life Assurance Company, which is also an affiliate of Mackenzie, provides certain services to Mackenzie in connection with Mackenzie's portfolio management activities. The Canada Life Assurance Company is responsible for paying certain administrative costs and all sales commissions, trailing commissions and any other compensation (collectively, "distribution-related payments") to registered dealers whose clients invest in the Fund. As such, Quadrus and The Canada Life Assurance Company receive a portion of the management fees that the Fund pays to Mackenzie. Approximately 78% of the total management fees that Mackenzie received from the Quadrus Group of Funds during the year was paid under these arrangements.

Mackenzie used approximately 43% of the total management fee revenues received from all Mackenzie funds during the year to fund distribution-related payments to registered dealers and brokers. In comparison, such distribution-related payments for the Fund represented on average 35% of the management fees paid by all applicable series of the Fund during the year. The actual percentage for each series may be higher or lower than the average depending on the level of trailing commissions and sales commissions paid for that series.
